

Global Benefits and Compensation Roundtable Video-Webinar

Jointly Sponsored by the American Benefits Council and The Conference Board

Enforcing Restrictive Covenants Across Jurisdictions

Thursday, January 31, Noon - 1:15 p.m. (Eastern Time)

The American Benefits Council and The Conference Board Governance Center, joint sponsors of the Global Benefits and Compensation Roundtable, are pleased to invite you to the next webinar providing a forum for addressing current cross-border benefits and compensations topics.

DESCRIPTION

How do you enforce restrictive covenants - including noncompete clauses, confidentiality clauses, non-solicitation agreements, among others - when an employee works in one jurisdiction and then takes on subsequent employment in another? Our panel of experts will review how to enforce such covenants across international lines, some of the legal complexities that may arise and how to navigate these complexities.

Centered on a hypothetical case study made specially for this webinar, the Roundtable panel will discuss:

- Approaches to drafting Non-Competition Agreements
- Possible provisions to include in Non-Competes (Garden Leave; Liquidated Damages; Non-Solicitation; etc.)
- How to use Non-Competition Agreements as leverage in negotiating with employees leaving for competing companies
- How to enforce Non-Competition Agreements, including the potential advantages of arbitration
- Important judicial precedents
- Potential reputational issues for the employer
- ...Among other topics

PANELISTS:

- Lynn Dudley, Senior Vice President, Global Retirement and Compensation Policy, American Benefits Council (Co-Moderator)
- David Herrington, Partner, Cleary Gottlieb Steen & Hamilton LLP
- Lisa Hunter, Program Director, The Conference Board, Inc. (Co-Moderator)
- Arthur Kohn, Partner, Cleary Gottlieb Steen & Hamilton LLP
- Jesse Pauker, Associate, Seyfarth Shaw LLP

For questions related to registration – If you have colleagues at your organization who would like to participate in this session, but do not regularly receive Council materials, please contact Deanna Johnson, senior director, membership, Mary Lindsay, executive assistant, or Sondra Williams, manager, member and staff engagement, at (202) 289-6700.

The American Benefits Council is the national trade association for companies concerned about federal legislation and regulations affecting all aspects of the employee benefits system. The Council's members represent the entire spectrum of the private employee benefits community and either sponsor directly or administer retirement and health plans covering more than 100 million Americans.

Notice: the information contained herein is general in nature. It is not, and should not be construed as, accounting, consulting, legal or tax advice or opinion provided by the American Benefits Council or any of its employees. As required by the IRS, we inform you that any information contained herein was not intended or written to be used or referred to, and cannot be used or referred to (i) for the purpose of avoiding penalties under the Internal Revenue Code, or (ii) in promoting, marketing or recommending to another party any transaction or matter addressed herein (and any attachment).

This e-mail may contain confidential information. If you are not the intended recipient, please advise by return e-mail and delete immediately the email without reading or forwarding to others.