REGISTRATION NOW OPEN!
The IBIS Academy will bring its unparalleled blend of education, leadership discussions, and networking opportunities to Edinburgh, Scotland in 2012.

THREE TRACKS
7-11 May IBIS Institute Track
9-11 May IBIS Conference Track
7-9 May GPHR Prep Track

THE IBIS ACADEMY
7-11 MAY 2012 • THE BALMORAL, EDINBURGH, SCOTLAND
“THRIVING IN CHALLENGING MARKETS”

The most prestigious and longest-running HR conference on international benefits in the world

“It was a very well organized conference, in a wonderful setting, with great speakers and participants.”
– Martin Rondeau, Director International Benefits, AIG (2011 Council attendee)
THE IBIS ACADEMY
7-11 MAY 2012
“Thriving in Challenging Markets”

IBIS Conference Track (our 42nd year!)
9-11 MAY 2012
Three days of knowledge sharing and networking for global benefits veterans, including regional trends and developments in an invigorating symposium experience. Exposure to key regulators for industry leadership discussions.

Registration: €1,500

TOPICS INCLUDE:
Emerging markets
Employee incentive programs
Global mobility
Health and wellness
Total rewards strategy and implementation
Regional challenges

RECOMMENDED FOR:
Experienced international HR professionals and solutions providers

“Good mix of timely, relevant information. Exposure to topics that aren’t always covered elsewhere, particularly in the U.S.”
— 2011 IBIS Conference Attendee

IBIS Institute Track
7-11 MAY 2012
Five-day accredited educational program providing core knowledge and skills.

Registration: €2,250

TOPICS INCLUDE:
Cross-border solutions
Expatriate assignments
Mergers & acquisitions
Multinational pooling
Pensions & retirement
Statutory benefits

RECOMMENDED FOR:
HR professionals with new international responsibilities

“It was the first time I saw a session on pension fund expensing given in simple terms. A very comprehensive approach.”
— 2011 IBIS Institute Attendee

To register or to find out more, please contact Lynn Dudley at (202) 289-6700 or ldudley@abcstaff.org.

International Benefits Committee Meeting
9 MAY 2012 • 09:00-12:00
The Council International Benefits Committee meeting offers the opportunity for dialogue with international benefits experts, key European regulators and advocates, as well as fellow plan sponsors about benefits issues affecting multinational companies.

TOPICS INCLUDE:
• Management of Defined Contribution Plans
• Global Governance Trends
• Challenges and Opportunities in New Emerging Markets
• Retirement Policy Developments and Advocacy in Europe
• Employee Mobility

Thanks to the generous contributions of our Academy Sponsors, scholarships are available to ABC members. Please contact Lynn Dudley at (202)289-6700 or by emailing ldudley@abcstaff.org.

“Thank you for the wonderful experience. The Academy proved to be informative and very well run.”
— Stephen McCaffrey, Sr. Counsel, National Grid (2011 Council attendee)

“Highly informative presentation and wonderful networking opportunity.”
— Dick Hackett, Global Benefits Manager, Cargill (2011 Council attendee)

American Benefits Council

GPHR Prep Track (new in 2012)
7-9 MAY 2012
Looking to enhance your global HR knowledge? This comprehensive three-day program focuses on key content appearing on the GPHR® certification exam. Get the necessary knowledge, skills and perspective to be successful in this worldwide market with the SHRM Global Learning System. This track can be combined with the IBIS Conference Track.

Registration: SHRM® GPHR Prep Track - €1,500
GPHR Track + IBIS Conference - €2,250

RECOMMENDED FOR:
HR professionals with international and cross-border responsibilities who have at least 2 years of exempt-level HR experience
• PHR- and SPHR-level professionals seeking to supplement their certification to an international level

*Global Professional in Human Resources

IBIS Conference Track (our 42nd year!)
9-11 MAY 2012
Three days of knowledge sharing and networking for global benefits veterans, including regional trends and developments in an invigorating symposium experience. Exposure to key regulators for industry leadership discussions.

Registration: €1,500

TOPICS INCLUDE:
Emerging markets
Employee incentive programs
Global mobility
Health and wellness
Total rewards strategy and implementation
Regional challenges

RECOMMENDED FOR:
Experienced international HR professionals and solutions providers

“Good mix of timely, relevant information. Exposure to topics that aren’t always covered elsewhere, particularly in the U.S.”
— 2011 IBIS Conference Attendee

IBIS Institute Track
7-11 MAY 2012
Five-day accredited educational program providing core knowledge and skills.

Registration: €2,250

TOPICS INCLUDE:
Cross-border solutions
Expatriate assignments
Mergers & acquisitions
Multinational pooling
Pensions & retirement
Statutory benefits

RECOMMENDED FOR:
HR professionals with new international responsibilities

“It was the first time I saw a session on pension fund expensing given in simple terms. A very comprehensive approach.”
— 2011 IBIS Institute Attendee

To register or to find out more, please contact Lynn Dudley at (202) 289-6700 or ldudley@abcstaff.org.

International Benefits Committee Meeting
9 MAY 2012 • 09:00-12:00
The Council International Benefits Committee meeting offers the opportunity for dialogue with international benefits experts, key European regulators and advocates, as well as fellow plan sponsors about benefits issues affecting multinational companies.

TOPICS INCLUDE:
• Management of Defined Contribution Plans
• Global Governance Trends
• Challenges and Opportunities in New Emerging Markets
• Retirement Policy Developments and Advocacy in Europe
• Employee Mobility

Thanks to the generous contributions of our Academy Sponsors, scholarships are available to ABC members. Please contact Lynn Dudley at (202)289-6700 or by emailing ldudley@abcstaff.org.

“Thank you for the wonderful experience. The Academy proved to be informative and very well run.”
— Stephen McCaffrey, Sr. Counsel, National Grid (2011 Council attendee)

“Highly informative presentation and wonderful networking opportunity.”
— Dick Hackett, Global Benefits Manager, Cargill (2011 Council attendee)

American Benefits Council

GPHR Prep Track (new in 2012)
7-9 MAY 2012
Looking to enhance your global HR knowledge? This comprehensive three-day program focuses on key content appearing on the GPHR® certification exam. Get the necessary knowledge, skills and perspective to be successful in this worldwide market with the SHRM Global Learning System. This track can be combined with the IBIS Conference Track.

Registration: SHRM® GPHR Prep Track - €1,500
GPHR Track + IBIS Conference - €2,250

RECOMMENDED FOR:
HR professionals with international and cross-border responsibilities who have at least 2 years of exempt-level HR experience
• PHR- and SPHR-level professionals seeking to supplement their certification to an international level

*Global Professional in Human Resources

IBIS Conference Track (our 42nd year!)
9-11 MAY 2012
Three days of knowledge sharing and networking for global benefits veterans, including regional trends and developments in an invigorating symposium experience. Exposure to key regulators for industry leadership discussions.

Registration: €1,500

TOPICS INCLUDE:
Emerging markets
Employee incentive programs
Global mobility
Health and wellness
Total rewards strategy and implementation
Regional challenges

RECOMMENDED FOR:
Experienced international HR professionals and solutions providers

“Good mix of timely, relevant information. Exposure to topics that aren’t always covered elsewhere, particularly in the U.S.”
— 2011 IBIS Conference Attendee

IBIS Institute Track
7-11 MAY 2012
Five-day accredited educational program providing core knowledge and skills.

Registration: €2,250

TOPICS INCLUDE:
Cross-border solutions
Expatriate assignments
Mergers & acquisitions
Multinational pooling
Pensions & retirement
Statutory benefits

RECOMMENDED FOR:
HR professionals with new international responsibilities

“It was the first time I saw a session on pension fund expensing given in simple terms. A very comprehensive approach.”
— 2011 IBIS Institute Attendee

To register or to find out more, please contact Lynn Dudley at (202) 289-6700 or ldudley@abcstaff.org.

International Benefits Committee Meeting
9 MAY 2012 • 09:00-12:00
The Council International Benefits Committee meeting offers the opportunity for dialogue with international benefits experts, key European regulators and advocates, as well as fellow plan sponsors about benefits issues affecting multinational companies.

TOPICS INCLUDE:
• Management of Defined Contribution Plans
• Global Governance Trends
• Challenges and Opportunities in New Emerging Markets
• Retirement Policy Developments and Advocacy in Europe
• Employee Mobility

Thanks to the generous contributions of our Academy Sponsors, scholarships are available to ABC members. Please contact Lynn Dudley at (202)289-6700 or by emailing ldudley@abcstaff.org.

“Thank you for the wonderful experience. The Academy proved to be informative and very well run.”
— Stephen McCaffrey, Sr. Counsel, National Grid (2011 Council attendee)

“Highly informative presentation and wonderful networking opportunity.”
— Dick Hackett, Global Benefits Manager, Cargill (2011 Council attendee)