American Benefits Council:

Executive Compensation Briefing

Webinar #3: NQ Plans and Corporate Considerations

November 20, 2014
Lynn Dudley, Mark Poerio, Brigen Winters, Michael Falk, and Elizabeth Drigotas
About our Panel

- Lynn Dudley, American Benefits Council
- Mark Poerio, Paul Hastings
- Brigen Winters, Groom Law Group
- Michael Falk, Winston & Strawn
- Elizabeth Drigotas, Deloitte Tax LLP
Nonqualified Plans Generally

- Who may participate? [not-broad-based]
- What laws primarily govern?
- Basic Types
  - Defined Benefit, e.g. SERP
  - Defined Contribution, e.g. DCP
  - Purposes: Excess - Voluntary – Employer
General Tax Principles

- Constructive Receipt Doctrine
- Economic Benefit Doctrine
Constructive Receipt Doctrine

- Longstanding, fundamental principle of tax law
- Continues to apply post – 409A
- Regulations under Code section 451
  - Income in the year actually or constructively received
  - Taxation when right to immediate payment or current right to control without substantial limitations
Constructive Receipt Doctrine

- Revenue Ruling 60-31
  - Seminal IRS interpretation of constructive receipt principles
  - “Mere promise to pay” that is not secured is not income
  - But taxpayer may not deliberately turn back on income
Economic Benefit Doctrine

- Employee taxed on certain rights when receiving the economic benefits of those rights

- Sproull – Amounts included in executive’s income when assets irrevocably placed in trust for executive’s benefit

- Rev. Rul. 60-31 example – football player contract

- Minor – Contribution to deferred compensation plan taxable where fully vested / nonforfeitable and secured against employer’s creditors

- Rabbi Trusts

- Section 83
409A Overview

- Enron and Legislative Reaction
- Scope and Exemptions
- Election requirements
- Distribution restrictions - PDEs
- Acceleration/delay prohibition
- Non-compliance penalties
Nonqualified Plan Accounting

- Basic Principles
  - Defined Benefit Plans
  - Defined Contribution Plans
- Modifications and Benefit Changes
- Controlling or Minimizing Expense
NQ Plan Design Considerations

- Participation
- Voluntary Deferrals
- Employer Contributions – Vesting
- Distributions
- 409A’s Impact – and Planning for It
Top Hat Plan Rules

- Origin in ERISA
  - Implications of Failed Top Hat Exemption
- Dept. of Labor Policy and Advisory Opinions
- Coverage parameters drawn from litigation
Washington and Global Updates

- U.S. Legislative Proposals
  - Camp tax reform draft proposals
  - 162(m) expansion and 409B
  - Potential revenue raisers?
- Global Developments
C-Suite Exec. Comp. Issues

- Shareholder Relations
  - Say on Pay – Say on Parachute
  - ISS, and Equity Plans
- Shareholder Litigation
  - Stock Plan Proposals
  - 162(m) Compliance
- Accounting Considerations
Conclusion

- Final Remarks
- Q&A
- Follow-up Ideas?