2 must be built upon in the next reauthorization bill
3 to increase the efficient and effective utilization of 4 Federal funding;

5 (3) these reforms should include the elimination
6 of duplicative Federal regulations and increase the 7 authority and responsibility of the States to safely
8 and efficiently build, operate, and fund transpor-
9 tation systems that best serve the needs of their citi-
10 zens, including the ability of each State to imple-11 ment innovative solutions, while also maintaining the 12 appropriate Federal role in transportation; and

13 (4) Congress should enact and the President
14 should sign a surface transportation reauthorization
