

AMERICAN BENEFITS COUNCIL

Benefits Passport Webinar:

State of the World: HR & Benefits Issues Affecting Multinational Firms

Tuesday, August 27, 11:00 a.m. - noon ET

The American Benefits Council will host a Benefits Passport Briefing webinar on Tuesday, August 27, at 11 a.m. Eastern Time, during which we will provide a “State of the World” look at human resources & benefits issues that affect multinational firms.

This webinar will update you on economic, HR, and benefit trends/regulations that will affect your business today and in the coming year. There will be updates on EU Directives, GDPR, BREXIT and relevant country-specific issues.

Lynn Dudley, senior vice president, global retirement and compensation policy, will moderate the session, which will be presented by Richard Polak, senior advisor, global affairs.

A recording of this session will be sent to all registrants. Even if you will not be able to attend in person, please register to receive a digital playback of the webinar automatically.

NOTE: Participation in Council webinars may be used toward continuing education/renewal requirements for many professional accreditation programs, but only by means of self-certification. Descriptions of past programs are available by clicking here. Please retain your registration confirmation for your verification records.

For questions related to registration – If you have colleagues at your organization who would like to participate in this session, but do not regularly receive Council materials, please contact Deanna Johnson, senior director, membership, Sondra Williams, manager, member and staff engagement, or Mary Lindsay, executive assistant, at (202) 289-6700.

The American Benefits Council is the national trade association for companies concerned about federal legislation and regulations affecting all aspects of the employee benefits system. The Council's members represent the entire spectrum of the private employee benefits community and either sponsor directly or administer retirement and health plans covering more than 100 million Americans.
